2019 COLONY OF ARTISTS

14TH ANNUAL EXHIBITION

ABBEYHILL

EDINBURGH

WELCOME TO THE 2019

WHAT'S GOING ON?

66 ARTISTS
40 VENUES
16 EVENTS
1 AMAZING STAGE

Our community of artists will be exhibiting in their own homes & other venues throughout the Abbeyhill area.
Come sample a wealth of arts, crafts, music, social history & more!

ALL GOOD THINGS START WITH AN IDEA AND THE DETERMINATION TO SEE IT HAPPEN.

There has always been a strong sense of community within the Colonies in Edinburgh from their humble beginnings in 1861 to this day. This co-operative spirit was adopted by the Abbeyhill Colony of Artists in 2005 when the first exhibition took place featuring 9 resident artists. It was local resident artist Gill Smith who, after participating in Pittenweem Arts Festival, was inspired to initiate the Abbeyhill Colony of Artists. Gill and her partner Bob Giulianotti organised the first few years of the Colony of Artists exhibitions with William Mazur and Kat Chisholm leading the way since then. Over the years the event has grown and people from all over Edinburgh and beyond come to visit.

COLONY OF ARTISTS EXHIBITION

The Scotsman
"One of the city's fastest growing community arts event"

The Guardian
"Fuelled by community spirit rather than public funding, the Colony of Artists exhibition is art at its most intimate"

The Metro
Top 10 Things to do in Scotland!

The Edinbugh Evening News
"Abbeyhill Colonies drawn out as city's answer to South Bank"
