

BYRON HOME OF THE BYRON

6oz of properly-sourced British beef, topped with dry cure bacon and mature Cheddar, shredded iceberg, tomato, red onion and homemade Byron sauce 9.50

We started Byron with a simple mission: to do one thing and do it properly. We serve simple, delicious, juicy hamburgers, made with the best ingredients possible. We may have a few more restaurants these days, but our mission remains the same: to keep serving proper hamburgers, the way they should be.

A Byron hamburger is made to our own recipe: four cuts of properly sourced British beef, ground fresh into 6oz patties and cooked medium (or however you like it), so it's pink and juicy. We serve it in a squishy bun with a pickle on the side. And that's it.
