Afternoon Tea with Scotland's Crime Writers

Sunday 1 October, 1-5pm

The Stables, Prestonfield House, Edinburgh

Enjoy a scrumptious afternoon tea with a glass of bubbles while hearing from some of Scotland's best-loved crime writers.

Our guest authors Alex Gray and Christopher Brookmyre will discuss the fascinating process of creating a character for fiction, and two of our talented pupils from the Royal Blind School will give readings from their own creative writing.

Fantastic raffle and auction prizes to be won, including an opportunity to have a character named after you in Christopher Brookmyre's new book.

Book your tickets today!

£50 per person

Or £75 Exclusive – afternoon tea with one of the guest authors.

Advance ticket sales only.

Discounts for group bookings – please enquire.
